Library

Welcome!

Friends of the Pleasanton Library? What's That? Who's That?

The Friends are members of the community who ...

- Enthusiastically value the library and its services
- Are important advocates
- Provide critical funding for programs and services for every age group, ethnic group, and interest
- Have been supporting the library for over 40 years!

Mission of the Friends

- Promote public awareness of the library
- Encourage support of library facilities and programs
- Foster understanding and communication between the library and the community
- Solicit, receive, hold, and manage goods and funds donated to improve the library; serve as trustees and stewards for donations made to the library

Why Join the Friends of the Pleasanton Library?

- Get involved with a local group that loves the library and its important role
- Support a lifelong enjoyment of the library
- Support the growth of our library: its programs, facilities, and services
- Receive newsletters, with updates about the spring and fall book sales
